

Elgin Race Will Be Test of Men and Machines—Fast Time is Expected

WILL NEED BIG CROWD IF ALL BILLS ARE PAID

Estimated That a Least 16,000 People Must Attend Go if Promoters Make Any Money.

By Frank G. Menke.
NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Those fellows who are promoting the McFarland-Gibbons bout are a brave lot. They'll have to take it close to $45,000 before they can begin to realize a profit, and $45,000 in these war-time days is a large flock of money. At the prices charged, it means that the attendance will have to reach between 15,000 and 20,000 before the promoters can begin counting profits. And 16,000 to 20,000, Horace, is some crowd. The Johnson-Jeffries fight drew only about 25,000 and the Johnson-Willard affair less than half that total. The biggest crowd that ever attended a bout in New York state since no-decision bouts became operative was about 12,000 and that was an entertainment where the admission prices were far less than those which will be charged to see Packey and Mike perform.

"Happy" No Longer Happy.
"Happy" Littleton was very happy when he arrived in New York from the sunny south. Wasn't he middle-weight champion of the S. & T. and wasn't he sure of getting enough matches to insure a fattening of his bankroll. Sure. But things have changed.
The promoters and scribes in New York gave a look at "Happy" and at once exclaimed that he looked like Jim Corbett and fought like Stanley Ketchell. They kept drumming that into "Happy's" ear so long that "Happy" has become confused and he's afraid that sometime he'll climb into the ring, get things confused and fight like Jim Corbett and look like Stanley Ketchell.

Abearn to be a Soldier.
Mrs. Woodward probably didn't raise her boy Jackie to be a soldier, but he's going to be one just the same—at least he says he is. Mrs. Woodward's son is known in the prize ring as Young Abearn, the middleweight fighter.

Abearn lingered around on these shores in the hope of landing a few fights. But he's been disappointed. Whereupon, he said:
"I'm going to quit the United States and go to England and enlist. I am of a fighting disposition and if I can't get fights in the ring I'll get 'em on the battlefield. Good-bye, one and all—soon I shall depart."

Gibson Alibis for Coffey.
Willie Gibson, who manages Jim Coffey, the heavyweight, just has been awarded a truck load of medals for originating the best little alibi that's been given out for many years.
As you will remember, Coffey battled Jim Flynn some months ago, and put up a disappointing exhibition.
"What was the matter with Coffey?" Gibson was asked.
"The matter with him? Ah, yes, well, to be sure," alibied Gibson. "Well, you see, it was this way. Coffey had been growing during the past year or so. He's not got his full height and you know when a child is growing it weakens him. That's what was wrong with Coffey. He was weak because he was growing."

Defeat Was Costly.
It cost Eddie McGoorty about $50,000 to meet—and he knocked out—Leo Harvey, the Australian. It was the first time that McGoorty ever was sent to the mat for the full count and his defeat has robbed him of much of his drawing power.
McGoorty went to Australia, where he was a big favorite, with the assurance of getting enough matches to net him at least $35,000, provided, of course, that he didn't lose any of his matches.
McGoorty, through the loss of his first match, has ceased to be a drawing card in Australia. Furthermore, the defeat means that McGoorty won't be able to shake down the American promoters for the husky purses he used to get.

SHOOT HANDICAP TODAY
More Than Six Hundred Are Entered in Event.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—With more than 600 entries the preliminary handicap in connection with the grand American trap shooting tourney was to be shot off today. Another big event on the program was the professional shoot of 100 yards at targets at 16 yards. The preliminary event is also for 100 targets at 16 to 23 yards. The events for the day were special shooting for professionals. Charlie Newcomb of Philadelphia won the national amateur championship at singles. He broke 99 out of 100 targets.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Jack Warhop, one time pitcher of the New York Americans, is through with baseball. He is going back to the farm at Freeport, Ill. He was released to the Richmond International league club along with First Baseman Mullen and Catcher Sweeney. SMASHES 99 OUT OF 100 TARGETS

Philadelphia Trap Shooter Makes Highest Score Ever Registered in Event.

By Tom Marshall.
CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—One of the greatest title races ever staged before the traps was witnessed Tuesday in the second day's events of the Grand American handicap tournament in Grant park. The shoot that attracted the interest of a large crowd of spectators was the national amateur championship event at singles which was won by C. H. Newcomb of Philadelphia. He smashed 99 out of 100 targets for the highest score ever registered in this event.

Newcomb gave an exhibition of shooting that was a treat for the gallery. He was on top of every blue rock almost the instant they appeared above the hood of the trap. Every shot was a clean one and Newcomb sent all of his targets into the lake in dust form. His lone miss came on the 92nd bird when he shot under the flyer.

Newcomb's lone miss probably was due to the high wind from the north-east. The breeze swept in off the water at a high clip and occasionally the targets were seen to leap almost straight into the air.
Newcomb had to shoot his last 25 birds under a handicap. Before he went out for his last string, J. R. Jean, representing Iowa, had broken 97 for high count. Shortly after this R. A. King of Colorado hung up a mark of 98. Shooting with Newcomb was A. B. Richardson of Delaware, who was pressing the Pennsylvania entrant closely throughout. Richardson shot three perfect 25s after dropping two in his first frame and Newcomb had to move at top speed right up to the finish to avoid a three-cornered tie for 98.

The national amateur championship at doubles was also decided and was captured by Guy Deering of Columbus, Wis.

Deering's score was 91 and the only man close to him was Mark Arie of Thomasboro, Ill., who scored 90.
The Chicago Overture at 100 targets was won by H. J. Rehhausen of North Platte, Neb. He shattered 98 of the clay birds. Sam Huntley of Omaha pounced on 97 targets and William Ford of Wilmington, Del., copped 96. The professionals had a big time and by themselves. Forty-six of the shell and powder boosters were out displaying their wares on the firing line and they gave the targets a merry pepper. A score of 97 by J. E. Dicke took high honors. R. R. Barber was second high in this class with 96. Several men registered 94 breaks.

The tournament will continue Wednesday with the preliminary handicap in which a big field is expected to compete.

FAST TIME MADE OVER ELGIN COURSE
Anderson Does Eighty Miles an Hour and Promises to Do Better.
ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 18.—Drivers entered in the road races Friday and Saturday have commenced to burn up the course in their speed trials. Gil Anderson in his Stutz made a lap in the average time of 30 miles an hour and said that as soon as he learns the course he will increase the speed. Other drivers in their workouts are making fast time and fans are expecting to see the course record shattered this year.

Two cars have been lost to the race. Ralph De Palma announced that his Stutz car would not be in the contest because he could not get a driver for it. Ralph Mulford has announced that he will not drive in the events. It is believed that his decision is due to refusal of the race officials to give him free complimentary tickets last year.

LEAGUE MAGNATES MEET
Will Decide What Team Is Entitled to Benton.
BOSTON, Aug. 18.—The National league magnates met here today. Among the important business to be transacted is the status of Rube Benton, now with the Pirates. The Giants claim the former Red pitcher. Prest Tener and Prest Hermann of the Reds say he belongs to New York. Prest Dreyfus of the Pirates declines to part with the pitcher, claiming that he bought him in a bona fide transaction. He pitched him yesterday and Rube won his game from the Cubs. Both New York and Chicago have protested the game. Its now up to the league.

WILL PLAY NILES TEAM
Series of Five Games is to Begin Sunday.
A second series of five games has been arranged between the Niles and South Bend independent baseball club to begin Sunday at Springfield park. An interesting set of contests is predicted, as the Benders have strengthened sufficiently to warrant them confidence of victory. They gave the Wolverines three tough battles in the first series and are now enough stronger to anticipate a reversal of the tables.
The locals will probably line up as they did against Fort Wayne Sunday with the exception of right field, where E. J. "Turk" Coffey is very unlikely to risk his life again, despite the enjoyment he got out of last Sunday's game. Philion was not missed at first base with Francis taking care of everything and hitting the ball hard on every appearance at the plate.

PERU, Ind.—Brooding over the loss of two sons by drowning, Antonio Cuda has twice attempted suicide, but was both times restrained.
